Tired of endless meetings where people use the same lingo over and over?

Would you like to fight back, have some fun, improve your attention span, and your prospects of staying awake?

Finally, a way to find new meaning and purpose to your meeting experiences!! It's called Business Speak Bingo!! The bingo card is filled with of the words and phrases that we have all learned to hate!

Here's how it works:

1. Before your next meeting, seminar, or conference call, grab your "Business Speak Bingo" game cards.
2. Chose some fellow players to join you and provide each with a different game card before the meeting starts.
3. While at the meeting, carefully listen for the all too well known and over-used business talk. When the speaker or participants use one, simply and mark out the box containing the identified word(s).
4. As soon as you mark five blocks horizontally, vertically, or diagonally, stand up and shout "BS Bingo!!!"
Or, if you fear for your reputation (or job); you can avoid disclosing your shenanigans to the speaker and/or other unwitting attendees by simply picking a secret code word or hand signal to alert your fellow players to your winning status.
5. For even more fun, charge each player a few bucks per card and let the first "BS Bingo" winner collect the proceeds.

Order your own set of game cards and watch the fun begin!

For an especially good laugh, you can submit some of your own words and request a custom set of cards!
